Upcoming U.S. Navy Innovation Talks In partnership with the United States Navy, TechFire® will be hosting two Innovation Talks and Networking events in Southern Maryland this month. These events will feature speakers to discuss the benefits of technology transfer, licensing, and collaborations with federal laboratories to entrepreneurs, startups, and small businesses, as well as the importance of IP protection and IP rights. For the event in Lexington Park on September 25, please register at https://techfireinnovation-nawc.eventbrite.com For the event in Indian Head on September 28, register at https://techfireinnovation-iheodtd.eventbrite.com

ARL Licensing Spotlight- Improved Electrochemical Cells

The U.S. Army Research Laboratory (ARL) has developed several technologies dealing with improved electrolytes and cathode elements, which improve energy capacity and storage life of lithium/lithium ion batteries. These improved technologies can be used in high energy density batteries and high power electrochemical capacitors (for energy storage) as near drop-in replacements. For further information, please contact John Millemaci at 301-645-6637, ext. 709 or john.a.millemaci.ctr@mail.mil
